OVERVIEW

Rise got its start in the community in 1967 and was established to fight the war on poverty. Since then, there have been many changes to our name, our services, and now our home. Going forward, we'll continue to be a gathering place, and remain at the center of a more just & healthy community for all.

HERE'S HOW TO GET STARTED & WHAT TO DO WITH YOUR ITEMS

COLLECTION:

Decide who is going to be the point of contact for donation collection and where the drop off location will be. There are printable signs at the end of this document for you to use to promote your drive and to put on or above your collection bin/area.

CONTACT:

During your drive, if you have any questions or you need any additional information about current needs, please feel free to contact us at volunteer@njrise.org or call the home office directly and ask to speak to our one of our volunteer coordinators. They will be able to assist you!

DROPPING OFF:

At the conclusion of your drive, you can bring all of your donated items to the Rise Thrift Store located at 114 Rogers Ave, Hightstown, NJ. The store is open 7 days a week. From there, we will bring your donations to the appropriate Rise location. If you have a large amount of donated items and need to coordinate a pick-up, we may be able to accommodate you. Please let us know ahead of time by contacting volunteer@njrise.org or calling the home office. Please do not bring donations of food items directly to the pantry since it is only open and staffed a few days a week.
